1981-82 Season Review

WIBC retraced its roots during the 1981-82 season as the world's largest sports organization for women celebrated its 65th year with a return to St. Louis, Mo., the city of its birth.

Attention was focused on WIBC's St. Louis heritage during the 1982 Annual Meeting. Mrs Helen Baker of Cocoa Beach, Fla., WIBC president, paid tribute to WIBC's founders in her report to the delegates.

"Welcome to St. Louis, where 65 years ago 40 determined women and Dennis J. Sweeney, a bowling proprietor with far reaching vision, brought into being the organization that today is the Women's International Bowling Congress."

The season was also a momentous one for Mrs. Baker. She presided over her first annual meeting as only the fifth president in WIBC history. She had been elected in 1981 to the post held since 1960 by Mrs. Alberta E. Crowe of Liverpool, N.Y.

The WIBC Championship Tournament was held in St. Louis for a record fifth time, including the first event in 1916 when eight teams bowled at Sweeney's six-lane Washington Recreation for $222 in prize money.

WIBC growth has been tremendous since those early days, and that growth is reflected nowhere more clearly than in the tournament itself. In 1982, 8,038 teams entered the event held at 32-lane Concord Lanes and 40-lane Brunswick Four Seasons Bowl. The prize fund was a record $769,998, and the 79-day run was second longest on record.

Another indicator during the season of WIBC growth was the continued emergence of the Avon/WIBC Queens Tournament as one of the richest events of its kind in women's bowling.

Katsuko Sugimoto of Tokyo, Japan, won the title for the second straight year, earning $20,525, richest prize in women's match play bowling. The event was the third staged with Avon sponsorship.

For the first time in its history, WIBC held a national bowling tournament for its senior members. The WIBC National Senior Tournament took place May 15-16 in Baltimore, Md., with 43 women competing in four divisions determined by age.

Ground-breaking ceremonies for the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum drew delegates briefly away from convention business in St. Louis as construction began near Busch stadium on the long awaited shrine to bowling.

Another significant event saw the induction of Mrs. Crowe and Donna Zimmerman of Huntington Dennis J. Sweeney, St. Louis bowling proprietor, and 40 determined women, founded WIBC in 1916.

Mrs. Alberta E. Crowe, WIBC past president, and Donna Zimmerman, WIBC all events champion, were inducted into the WIBC Hall of Fame at the 1982 Annual Meeting.

Beach, Calif., into the WIBC Hall of Fame. Mrs Crowe was selected for Meritorious Service, Miss Zimmerman for Superior Performance in the Game of American Tenpins.

Annual Meeting

A near-record delegation of 3,466 convened April 19-21 in St. Louis' Cervantes Convention Center for the 65th WIBC Annual Meeting.

The convention center was two blocks from the site where WIBC was organized in 1916 and the 1982 proceedings opened with an appropriate birthday celebration. Special guests were Edward, Morgan and Henry, sons of founder Dennis J. Sweeney, and their families.

The delegates adopted 14 amendments to the WIBC Bylaws and Rules and to bylaws of local and state associations during 64 minutes of deliberation. Five proposed amendments were rejected. One was withdrawn.

Approved legislation included proposals involving collegiate membership, transfer of delegate credentials, election procedures, nominating committee requirements and hostess city and association procedures.

Vicki Parker of Nashua, N.H., received the Alberta E. Crowe Star of Tomorrow Award during the opening session. The 17-year-old rolled New Hampshire's first 700 series by a woman the previous season. She averages 184

The induction of Mrs. Crowe and Miss Zimmerman brought to 79 the number of women enshrined in the hall.

Elected to the WIBC Board of Directors in 1939, Mrs. Crowe served 42 years on the board. She was elected president in 1960. Under her direction, WIBC membership grew to more than 4.2 million, the WIBC Championship Tournament became the largest bowling event for either men or women, and many innovative programs were developed.

Miss Zimmerman won the 1965 WIBC all events title. That same year, she won the Bowling Proprietors' Association of America National Women's Doubles title and was selected to the Bowlers Journal All American team. She won the 1963 Ohio and 1966 California BPAA Women's Match Game events and two professional titles. In addition, she won 11 Akron (Ohio) and two Los Angeles (Calif.) WBA titles.

Delegates returned nine WIBC Board members to office for three-year terms.

Officers re-elected were: Mrs. Lo Borschuk, Sioux City, Iowa, third vice president; Mrs. Joyce Deitch, Las Vegas, Nev., sixth vice president; and Mrs. Anne Simone, Sunderland, Mass., sergeant-at-arms.

Directors returned to their posts were: Mrs. Mary Jane Sporar, Joliet, Ill.; Mrs. Marilynn Rew, Orlando, Fla.; Mrs. Ruth Smith, Findlay, Ohio; Mrs. Hazel McLeary, Victoria, B.C., Canada; Mrs. Lavonne Hodgson, Salina, Kan.; and Mrs. Shirlee Kutzner, Nutley, N.J.

The ranks of WIBC leadership were saddened earlier in the season with the death of Mrs. Rae Fisk of Houston, Texas, WIBC third vice president. Mrs. Fisk died October 29 while in Greendale, Wis., to attend a WIBC legal committee meeting at Bowling Headquarters.

Mrs. Baker filled the vacancy by moving the fourth through seventh vice presidents up to the next higher position and naming Mrs. Elaine Hagin of Castro Valley, Calif., seventh vice president. Mrs. Hagin had been a director. Mrs. Baker then appointed Mrs. Marilynn Rew of Orlando, Fla., a WIBC director.

The delegation adopted a resolution, passed earlier by the American Bowling Congress, calling for a committee of WIBC and ABC leaders to test procedures to improve the pace of bowling in sanctioned leagues.

The tests would be conducted during the 1982-83 season in cooperation with BPAA and bowling manufacturers, and modifications in league rules would be permitted for leagues participating in the tests.

Orange County, Calif., was selected as the site for the 1986 WIBC Championship Tournament and Annual Meeting over Tucson, Ariz., and Indianapolis, Ind.

Championship Tournament

More than 40,000 women bowlers entered the 63rd annual WIBC Championship Tournament. The final team count, 8,038, included entrants from all 50 states and four foreign countries and placed the St. Louis event sixth among the largest WIBCs ever held.

St. Louis had hosted more WIBC tournaments than any other city, but its largest previous event had been its last in 1952, 3,045 teams. In addition to 1916, St. Louis also hosted WIBC events in 1923 and 1932.

The 1982 prize fund of $769,998 topped the previous record $726,893, set in 1979 in Tucson, Ariz. The 79-day run — April 1 to June 18 — ranked second to only the 107-day 1973 WIBC in Las Vegas.

Zavakos Realtors of Dayton, Ohio, was the surprise team champion. The five nonprofessionals totaled 2961 on April 6, sixth day of the tournament, and survived the rest of the way against the nation's best women's bowling teams.

Jody Fritschle of Fairborn, Ohio, led the team with a 722 series on games of 231, 276 and 215. Her score was second on tournament records behind the 737 bowled by D.D. Jacobson of Playa Del Rey, Calif., in 1972.

Kathy Kan, Zavakos' captain, rolled 626; Linda Kelly added 601; Donna Sipniewski, 523; and Elizabeth Baude, 489. The team's three-game total ranks 14th on tournament records. Its 1074 team game is eighth.

Donna Adamek of Duarte, Calif., repeated as doubles titlist. Miss Adamek teamed with Pat Costello of Dublin, Calif., to bowl 1264. The Californians tied Shirley Hintz of Merritt Island, Fla., and Lisa Rathgeber of Palmetto, Fla., for the championship. They were only the second co-champions in tournament history.

Voted Woman Bowler of the Year the last four years, Miss Adamek and Nikki Gianulias of Vallejo, Calif., had won the 1981 WIBC doubles title. The win in St. Louis was Donna's third career WIBC championship.

Donna led the California pair to the title tie with 642. Pat bowled 622. The Floridians, who had posted their score first, were led by Lisa with 661. Shirley added 603.

Gracie Freeman of Alexandria, Va., won the singles title. The righthander bowled 652, opening with a 170 game, then adding 246 and 236. Mrs. Freeman, a former legal secretary, was a veteran of five WIBC tournaments.

The all events champion was Aleta Rzepecki of Detroit, Mich. She totaled 1905 with series of 606 in doubles, 624 in singles and 675 in the team event. Her score tied for 10th on the all-time records. Miss Rzepecki, 19 years of age, is the fourth youngest champion in tournament history.

Gracie Freeman won the singles title in St. Louis.

Aleta Rzepecki won the all events title.

Queens Tournament

Katsuko Sugimoto successfully defended the title she won in 1981 by defeating Nikki Gianulias 160-137 in the last game of the televised stepladder finals of the Avon/WIBC Queens Tournament at Brunswick Four Seasons Bowl.

The Japanese star became the fourth woman to win back-to-back titles in the 22-year history of the event. The others were: Donna Adamek, 1979-80; Dotty Fothergill, Lincoln, R.I., 1972-73; and Millie Martorella, Rochester, N.Y., 1970-71.

Miss Sugimoto earned $20,000 for her first place finish plus $525 for seven match-play victories to take home one of the biggest individual prize checks ever in women's bowling.

Avon sponsorship for the third straight year helped boost the total prize fund to more than $80,000 from the $60,000 purse offered the year before. Increased Avon backing has made the Queens the richest event of its kind in women's bowling.

Sugi, as she is called, and Nikki had faced each other in the position round prior to the finals. The Californian came out on top 787-731 in the four-game match to earn the No. 1 position in the stepladder. Sugi took the No. 2 spot.

Completing the five-player finals field were: Miss Adamek, third; Robin Romeo, Beverly Hills, Calif., fourth; and Lorene Woods, North Chicago, Ill., fifth.

Miss Woods downed Miss Romeo 163-160 in the first finals match. Lorene had been the qualifying leader, heading the 400-bowler starting field with 1701. However, in the next match, Donna downed Lorene 165-152 and moved up to face the defending champion.

Donna was no match for Sugi, who came away with a 191-166 win to set up the re-match with Nikki for the Queens crown.

The top eight Queens finalists and their total earnings were: 1. Miss Sugimoto, $20,525; 2. Miss Gianulias, $12,450; 3. Miss Adamek, $7,600; 4. Miss Woods, $4,800; 5. Miss Romeo, $3,525; 6. Judy Soutar, Leawood, Kan., $2,300; 7. Nellie Glandon, Columbus, Ohio, $1,975; 8. Alberta Acosta, Pacifica, Calif., $1,650.

The Public Broadcasting Service taped the event and the two-hour program was aired on PBS stations during June.

Collegiate Events

Melisa Day of Muncie, Ind., scored a rare sweep of all three events in the Women's National Intercollegiate Championships held April 5 on the WIBC tournament lanes in St. Louis.

The Ball State University student won doubles teamed with Donna Kolb of Western Illinois, then took a one-pin victory in singles and finally earned the all events title and the Marion Ladewig Trophy, symbol of supremacy in college bowling.

Miss Day and Miss Kolb totaled 1118, with Melisa bowling 572, in winning the doubles event. In singles, the Indianan doubled in the 10th frame of her third game and totaled 575, edging Jama Reynolds of Eastern Kentucky who bowled 574.

Adding 551 in the final three games of the event, Melisa compiled a 1698 all events score and finished well out in front in the Association of College Unions-International event, which is co-sponsored by Brunswick and WIBC.

Top college teams faced each other in the National Collegiate Bowling Championships in Orlando, Fla., April 29-May 3. Winning the women's title was Erie Community College of Buffalo, N.Y., which defeated Arizona State University 205-193 in the championship match.

Erie had qualified for second in the three-team stepladder finals and defeated California State-Fresno 158-147 in the first match before facing Arizona State, the defending champion.

Twenty-four teams competed in the event, 12 women's and 12 men's. Winning the men's competition was Washington State University.

Senior Tournament

Bowlers from midwestern states won two of the four championships in the first WIBC National Senior Tournament.

Hazel Houchard of Plain City, Ohio, and Priscilla Marshall of Minneapolis, Minn., won the Class A and Class B titles. The Class C title was won by Velma Storey of Kingsport, Tenn., and Eileen Ennis of Crofton, Md., won Class D. Each received a $400 cash prize and a trophy.

The inaugural senior event was held in conjunction with the American Bowling Congress National Senior Tournament on the same lanes used for the ABC Tournament in the Baltimore Convention Center.

Forty-three women from 17 states qualified in four age groups as follows: Class A, 70 years and over, 9 entrants; Class B, 65-69, 13 entrants; Class C, 60-64, 11 entrants; and Class D, 55-59, 10 entrants.

The women had qualified for the event through senior tournaments in their home states. Maryland, New York, Ohio, Tennessee and Texas entered representatives in each division.

total in all four divisions, 1930, which included handicap and bonus pins. The women bowled six games of qualifying, with the top four advancing for three more games of match play. The high game was bowled by Catherine Spence in Class A, a 235.

Hall of Fame

Many WIBC members throughout the country had worked hard to help the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum become a reality, so it was appropriate that on April 20 delegates to the WIBC Annual Meeting in St. Louis witnessed another great step in that process.

Convention proceedings were interrupted long enough to allow nearly 2,000 delegates from all across the country to attend the historic ground-breaking for the NBHF/M across the street from Busch stadium.

Mrs. Myrtle Schulte of St. Louis, WIBC Hall of Fame member, and Ray Bluth, St. Louis area proprietor and ABC Hall of Fame member, rolled bowling balls down two simulated lanes. The pins they knocked down triggered explosives, which officially "broke" the ground.

Contributions were also made during the ceremonies. They included a $100,000 check presented by Fred L. Kuhlmann, vice chairman and executive vice president of Anheuser-Busch Companies, Inc., first installment on the brewery's $500,000 commitment.

Construction began almost immediately on the $6.2 million structure expected to attract 150,000 visitors annually. Completion of the structure is expected by summer of 1983 with final touches then being put on the exhibits and displays.

Funding for the museum was also enriched by more than $200,000 thanks to the first annual Budweiser/Natural Light Hall of Fame tournament.

WIBC Hall of Fame member Shirley Garms of Island Lake, Ill., and John Kiser of Twin Falls, Idaho, won the event in a step-ladder finals.

The finals of the tournament teamed 10 Hall of Fame members, five WIBC and five ABC, with 10 regional champions, five women and five men, from five Anheuser-Busch marketing areas.

League bowlers in more than 2,000 bowling centers participated in the preliminary competition using their league scores. Part of the $1 entry fee was donated to the NBHF/M, the rest went to an in-house prize fund.

Other WIBC Hall of Fame members in the field were Judy Soutar, Helen Duval, Berkeley, Calif.; Marion Ladewig, Grand Rapids, Mich.; and LaVerne Carter, Las Vegas, Nev.

Membership

WIBC recorded more than four million members for the sixth consecutive season during 1981-82, and the final membership count of 4,064,861 was the fifth highest in history.

However, the total was 47,151 fewer than the previous season, a drop of 1.15 percent. The decrease was not as large as the season before, however, when membership was down by more than 75,000.

Leagues totaled 163,639, also the fifth highest mark on record, but 2,248 less than the previous season. The decrease was 1.36 percent.

Michigan led all WIBC state associations in membership for the second consecutive season with 342,347. New York ranked second with 336,291 and Ohio was a close third with 336,259. Top 10 rankings were the same as the previous season.

California topped all states in number of leagues. The perennial leader in this category numbered 16,898, well out in front of second place New York with 12,564 and third place Ohio with 11,992. Top 10 rankings also were unchanged from 1980-81.

Detroit, Mich., outdistanced all other local associations in both membership and leagues. In members, Detroit numbered 117,011, topping Chicago, Ill., which totaled 75,121. In leagues, Detroit numbered 3,561, again leading Chicago, which had 2,553. Milwaukee, Wis., was third in both categories.

Minneapolis, Minn., made its first appearance among the leaders in members, ranking fourth. Cleveland, Ohio, dropped to fifth. Washington, D.C., took fourth in leagues with Denver, Colo., also making its first appearance among the leaders, in fifth.

The 15th WIBC State Leaders Workshop was held July 10-11 in Milwaukee, Wis., with a record 261 state women's bowling leaders attending the two-day session.

Mrs. Helen Baker, WIBC president, told the state leaders that communication, consideration and cooperation were essential in combating the problems facing bowling. She also asked WIBC associations to take up the challenge of solving the problems together.

Presentations during the workshop focused on the main theme of "Keys to Success." Talks covered such topics as conducting a successful meeting, conducting a successful state tournament and successful management of membership money.

High Scores

Fine performances on the lanes by several WIBC members produced three scoring records during 1981-82. Records were set for five-woman team game, two-woman team three-game series and individual three-game series.

Sheraton Inn of Scranton, Pa., bowled a record 1210 five-woman team game on May 1 in the Scrantonian Tribute, Idle Hour Lanes tournament at Idle Hour Lanes. The team's score bettered by one pin the total posted in 1979-80 by Ohio Twirling Institute of Cleveland, Ohio.

The Scranton team also registered the season's high team three-game series that same day, 3345, which ranks second to the 3379 by Freeway Washer and Stamping Co., also of Cleveland, in 1959-60.

Setting the new doubles record were Patty Ann of Arlington Heights, Ill., and WIBC doubles champ Pat Costello. They combined for 1496 on May 7 while competing in the Bowlers Journal Powder Puff doubles event at Tropicana Lanes in St. Louis.

Patty counted 836 on games of 258, 299 and 279, while Miss Costello bowled 660 on 210, 224 and 226. They beat the 1479 by Merrill Alexander and Susie Reichley of Dallas, Texas, in 1980-81.

Sharie Langford of Whittier, Calif., set a women's record 853 three-game series when she bowled games of 297, 289 and 267 on February 19 during qualifying for the Ladies Professional Bowlers Clearwater Classic at Shore Lanes in Clearwater, Fla.

Ten 800 series were bowled during the season, including Mrs. Langford's record and Miss Ann's score, which ranks fifth.

Both Miss Ann and Pamela Kiesel of Throop, Pa., accounted for two 800s. Patty's first, 837, had come in league play earlier in the season, and was the highest ever bowled in a WIBC sanctioned league. Pamela counted series of 810 and 802.

Other WIBC members bowling 800 series were: Jeanne Maiden, Solon, Ohio, 823; Peg Botkin, Rome, N.Y., 821; Patty Bowie, Glendale, Ariz., 816; Catherine Almeida, Fall River, Mass., 804; and Marilyn Braine, Cleveland, Ohio, 800.

Letitia Johnson of Napa, Calif., recorded the highest league average for a WIBC member during the season. Miss Johnson finished with a 224 average in the Monday Majors League at Napa Bowl.

That average by the 1980 Alberta E. Crowe Star of Tomorrow award winner was second to the record 227 set by Patty Ann during 1979-80.

WIBC members also bowled 103 perfect games in 1981-82, bettering by a wide margin the previous high for a season, which was 79 in 1980-81.

Accounting for three 300 games each during the season were Donna Adamek and Miss Johnson. Donna now has six sanctioned perfect games in her career, more than any other woman.

The WIBC awards program recognized more than 100,000 women during the season for special on-the-lanes achievements. Award categories and the number of awards presented during 1981-82 are as follows:

Triple score	39,285
All spare	25,908
100 pins over average	29,828
Big four split	3,588
7-10 split	1,423
Dutch 200 game	1,528
Total	101,560

Sharie Langford set a WIBC three-game series record of 853 during the season.

President's Report

St. Louis, Mo.
April 19, 1982

TO: The Board of Directors and delegates assembled at the 65th Annual Meeting of the Women's International Bowling Congress

Welcome to St. Louis, where 65 years ago 40 determined women and Dennis J. Sweeney, a bowling proprietor with far-reaching vision, brought into being the organization that today is the Women's International Bowling Congress, the world's largest organization of women sports participants.

This is the fourth time we have returned to our birthplace to hold our annual meeting and championship tournament. No other city has hosted the WIBC events five times as St. Louis has. We are now more than four million members strong. Dennis Sweeney is gone but you will meet some of his sons today.

All 40 of our founding charter members are also gone. The last three were Birdie Humphreys, Mayme Grub and Marie Meyer, all of St. Louis. Marie, who was Myrtle Schulte's doubles partner, is believed to have been the last survivor of those 40 women.

I consider it a distinct honor that my first appearance as your president should be here in St. Louis where Catherine Menne of St. Louis was elected WIBC's first president in 1916. It is hard for me to realize that I am only the fifth president in WIBC history.

Serving before me, in addition to Mrs. Menne, were: Zoe Quin, Chicago, Ill., 1919 to 1924; Jeannette Knepprath, Milwaukee, Wis., 1924 to 1960; and Alberta E. Crowe, Liverpool, N.Y., 1960 to 1981.

From the eight teams that competed for $222 in prize money 65 years ago, the WIBC tournament has exploded into a showcase bowling event that has attracted more than 40,000 women to St. Louis this year. They will compete for more than $700,000 in prize money and pour between $12 to $15 million into the St. Louis economy.

For 79 consecutive days, women bowlers from all 50 states, Canada and Japan will bowl at Concord Bowl and Brunswick Four Seasons Bowl. This 1982 tournament is the second longest ever and the sixth largest ever. The cooperation we have received from the proprietors, managers and staffs of the two centers is, as usual, just outstanding.

The members of the St. Louis Women's Bowling Association, your hostesses for this convention, have left few stones unturned in their efforts to make this one of the most memorable events yet. We sincerely thank them.

We want to congratulate the St. Louis WBA on the occasion of their 65th birthday, a milestone that no other local association can claim. Happy birthday, St. Louis.

Compared to those achievements in our fabulous history, I feel like a rookie. Even my 16 years as a member of the WIBC Board of Directors sometimes seems very short, though only two board members have served longer.

It is with considerable anticipation, some trepidation and that same sense of challenge that I had when I was elected that I stand before you for the first time as WIBC president. I know enormous tasks lie ahead of me. But I am confident — confident that by working together, all challenges can be faced successfully.

Since last April in Baltimore, many people, particularly members of the bowling media, have asked what goals I have set for myself as WIBC's first new president in two decades. That is a question I find very difficult to answer. Certainly, I want all of us to work together to keep WIBC a live, viable organization and to maintain the integrity of the game at the highest possible level.

Decline in our membership naturally continues as a concern to me. This, however, is a challenge that has to be met mainly at the local and state level. We, in Greendale, Wis., can keep reminding and pleading and urging and giving you all sorts of suggestions, but only you are in a position to bring in new members.

We appreciate the fact that some of you already have initiated some very innovative programs along these lines and we thank you and will wait anxiously for reports of results.

If, in 1982-83, we can show an average increase of only 150 new members for each local association, WIBC would gain nearly a half million members and your associations would have additional members to draw from for your leagues. Wouldn't that be wonderful!

Bowling in a WIBC league is still a bargain compared to other popular sports with which it competes for the scarce family recreation dollars available in these days of high inflation. The working mother, too, needs a time and place to relax. There's no better place than the bowling lanes.

WIBC's services to its members are its best selling points. What other organization offers so much for a membership fee as low as ours? WIBC dues increased only once — 50 cents — in the last 10 years. I won't be so naive as to predict an increase won't be necessary next year or the next, or the next, but your dues do go to pay for the services you now enjoy and for those that you may ask for in the future.

On the competitive side, unrealistic high scoring and slow bowling are two cancers in our game for which we have not yet found the cure. For any illness or disease, research precedes the cure. Members of the bowling family have studied the problems, sought techniques, equipment and dressings that will provide bowlers with a fair, consistent and reasonable condition. We seem to lose ground all over the country but the subject is still being researched.

Apparently there are still people who want to set records in the 100-yard dash on a 90-yard track with a 30-mile-per-hour wind pushing them to the finish line. And there are those who are happy to supply the short track in return for reams of press coverage on resulting performances and for smiles from contestants who begin to believe the scores reflect their true ability.

Who are we kidding? And where will it end?

The cure is in your hands. Tell your neighborhood bowling management you want complying conditions. Discuss the problem with them. It's your money and your reputation. And it's bowling's credibility that's on the line.

The slow bowling problem is a pesky nemesis that is back with us for no apparent reason. There are those who imagine that 20 or 30 seconds of concentration on each delivery is necessary and makes them look like professionals.

It's odd, but stars like Earl Anthony and Mark Roth hardly pause between taking their stance and beginning the approach. This is also true with many of our fine women bowlers.

We need to remind ourselves that the pace of bowling can be speeded up in other ways, too, without losing any enjoyment of the game. Be ready to bowl when it is your turn. You should be standing at the ball return as the bowler ahead of you returns to her seat.

A lot of small delays add up to big delays in starting times for your league or the one that follows. If proprietors can no longer fit three or four leagues into the proper time frames and keep all their shifts happy, drastic changes may have to be made in our comfortable league concepts.

Good things are happening too! Avon is sponsoring our WIBC Queens for the third consecutive year. That tournament opens here in St. Louis on May 4, 1982. The individual first place prize will be $20,000, with a total prize fund of $80,000.

David W. Mitchell, chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Avon Products, Inc., said, "We are particularly pleased to be supporting a sport that so many women engage in, both recreationally and competitively."

As in everything I have touched on in this report, the key is cooperation, whether on the national, state or local level; whether between proprietor and bowler, manufacturer and proprietor, or manufacturers and our membership.

We are all partners in one of the greatest sports of all time. Our game dates back even before our membership groups were organized, WIBC in 1916 and the American Bowling Congress in 1895.

An example of cooperation and partnership will be dramatically demonstrated in a new way next month. On May 15-16, the WIBC National Senior Championships will be staged in Baltimore, Md., on lanes used for the ABC tournament in the Baltimore Convention Center. It will be WIBC's first national senior event. ABC will hold its senior tournament at the same time, moving it from Milwaukee, Wis.

We will be working closely together to offer this new service, a national final for our seniors advancing from statewide competition. It should be an exciting time for everyone. We give our heartfelt thanks to all those state associations which really got behind this effort in order to have representatives in our first WIBC Senior Tournament and urge all others to make arrangements to be represented in the 1983 event.

Being your president has meant somewhat of a change in my life style, though there have always been demands on my time as a WIBC Board member in the past. But, it has also given me an opportunity to meet many more of WIBC's members personally. I look forward to more of those opportunities.

I will continue to dedicate most of my time and effort to WIBC. I want to thank Past President Alberta E. Crowe, the WIBC Board, Executive Secretary-Treasurer Flora Mitchell, the home office staff and each of you for helping me in so many different ways and for always being so willing to give your time and your effort to the game of American Tenpins.

TO: The Board of Directors and delegates assembled at the 65th Annual Meeting of the Women's International Bowling Congress

Ten years ago, as president of the Missouri Women's Bowling Association, it was my pleasure to welcome WIBC delegates to Missouri for the 1972 WIBC Annual Meeting held in Kansas City. Today, in a different capacity, it again gives me great pleasure to say "welcome to the 'Show-Me State' and the 65th Annual Meeting of the Women's International Bowling Congress."

As we look to the future there will be challenges and changes. We welcome them since most will bring about "freedom for growth." Along with changes comes increased competition, and we believe the best way for us to be competitive is to more completely meet the needs of our members. Over the years WIBC has tried to anticipate our members' needs in many areas and perhaps two of the best examples are the leadership training seminars and league officer workshop materials.

The leadership training program originated in 1974. Since then 43 seminars have been held in 30 states and in Washington, D.C. and Canada. At the LTSs 1,415 associations were represented and 6,722 members attended. We strongly believe this program has been beneficial to all of us, and in order to keep the program fresh and appealing we are pleased to announce that LTS III is being developed. To have time to develop the new program, LTSs will not be held during the summer of 1982. If your association is interested in hosting an LTS when the new program is complete, please contact the WIBC field services department.

We would also like to mention that the league officers' workbooks will be continued, and we ask that you order them for your workshops and leagues. Some new and interesting material has been added.

With turnover in league presidents reaching into the thousands annually, it is apparent that the more help these new officers receive, the better they will perform. Conducting a league meeting is a difficult job for a new league president, so the pamphlet, "Procedure for Conducting League Meetings," has been redesigned. The new title is, "How to Conduct a League Meeting," and that is precisely what the pamphlet outlines in an easy to follow, step by step format. Whether the league president has held the office before or not, this new pamphlet will be of great assistance.

Another change to look forward to is a new format for the Local Association Handbook and Tournament Manual. These two publications are being combined and the size has been increased to 8½" x 11" for ease in inserting into a 3-ring binder, the type many associations have for their board members.

The handbook, in particular, has been completely revised with the aim of making it a more useful guide for association officers and directors. Duties are outlined in detail, and samples of the various forms the association must submit to WIBC have been included. This newly designed handbook will be mailed to association presidents and secretaries at the beginning of the 1982-83 season.

In order to assist our leagues and local secretaries in processing award applications, a new award application will be introduced for the 1982-83 season — a turnaround mailer. This same form was initiated for the senior awards this past season.

The turnaround mailer consists of a self-seal envelope covered by the application. The application has a carbon-backed area for indicating the mailing name and address, which reproduces onto the envelope. The league secretary simply fills out the application portion, places a stamp on the WIBC addressed side and mails the application to WIBC. The entire form is returned to WIBC where, after the application is separated from the addressed envelope, the emblem, with congratulatory folder, is inserted into the envelope and mailed back to the league or individual.

This self-addressed application has done away with typing over 100,000 envelopes and pre-stuffing emblems each year, thereby providing faster service to the emblem award winners. These changes and others are an effort to serve the needs of our members.

Through the efforts of all of us we must meet the challenge of maintaining or increasing our membership growth. And it is a tremendous challenge.

As of March 1, 1982, WIBC membership totaled 3,841,325, which represented a decrease of 1.36 percent over this same date last season. There were 130,853 sanctioned leagues, representing a decrease of 0.53 percent. Since the 1976-77 season WIBC membership rolls have exceeded the four million mark. If the current trend continues, we can still anticipate four million members for the 1981-82 season. However, unless we can reach out and interest new members, as well as retain present ones, the 1982-83 picture could be a lot different.

Since there is great competition for the limited leisure time and dollars most people have available, it behooves all of us to spread the word on what bowling has to offer. We know! Let's tell others! Bowling is fun and competitive, but more than that, it gives us an opportunity to develop new friends; it is a lifetime sport; it gives a person the opportunity to be a part of a team. Many people have never had a chance to rely on others as well as having others rely on them.

We can maintain four million members! But it will take all of us doing our part.

We have mentioned in past reports our concern regarding unrealistic scoring. The Local Bowling Industry Forums conducted by the American Bowling Congress, the Bowling Proprietors' Association of America and WIBC during this season have helped our members better understand the problems we are facing in this area. A number of WIBC association leaders are now assisting their ABC local association in lane inspection and certification programs. With all of us cooperating from the national level to the local level, this problem, too, can be solved.

Again, I repeat, awards must be earned through the efforts of the bowler rather than obtained by an assist on the part of the person dressing the lanes. WIBC recognizes the importance of our entire awards program and will continue to set high standards for them.

When the first ball was rolled to open the 1982 WIBC Championship Tournament's 79-day run, it marked the fifth time this showcase of women's bowling has visited the "Gateway City to the West."

The 1982 tournament ranks sixth largest in WIBC history with 8,038 teams and is second longest with 79 days, 28 days behind the 1973 tournament in Las Vegas, Nev. The 40,000 plus bowlers are competing for total prizes of $765,721, largest in WIBC history.

The 63rd edition of the WIBC Championship Tournament includes teams from all 50 states, Bermuda, Canada and Japan.

The 1982 tournament will conclude June 18. St. Louis will also go into the record books seventh in doubles, 19,438, singles, 38,876 and optional all events, 35,866.

The traveling entry of 6,860 teams ranks fourth for team participation from outside the hostess state. States other than Missouri with large team entries are: Illinois, 792; Iowa, 552; Indiana, 436; Kansas, 360; and Michigan, 359. Leading associations in team entries, excluding Missouri cities are: Chicago, Ill., 81; Denver, Colo., 78; Minneapolis, Minn., 69; Milwaukee, Wis., 66; and Houston, Texas, 60.

Again this year a considerable number of delegate teams were unable to bowl during delegates week because their entries were not submitted to WIBC until late November and early December. True, the 10-day period of delegates week is designated for teams who have delegates to the WIBC Annual Meeting. However, those lanes are only available to the delegates as long as they last. Therefore, we strongly urge you to make your choices of dates and times early and submit your completed entry forms and full fees to the WIBC tournament department as early as possible.

The finest junior bowlers in the St. Louis area took to the lanes on April 3 for the annual American Junior Bowling Congress handicap singles tournament. You will be seeing some of these youngsters later today.

The finals of the Women's National Intercollegiate Championships were conducted by the Association of College Unions-International on April 5. Twenty-four of the top women bowlers in the collegiate ranks competed in this tournament which is co-sponsored by the Brunswick Corporation and WIBC.

Many of the top bowlers in the country will be competing for a $20,000 first prize and the title of champion of the 1982 Avon/WIBC Queens Tournament. The 400 participants begin qualifying for the top 63 spots on May 4. Katsuko Sugimoto of Tokyo, Japan, will be on hand to defend her 1981 Avon/WIBC Queens title. This prestigious event will be held at Brunswick Four Seasons Bowl from May 4 to 8.

As many of you are aware, the WIBC tournament committee and our tournament staff keep close tabs on our tournament, compiling statistics and evaluating the event on a regular basis. As a result of these studies, the WIBC Board of Directors has approved two landmark changes that will take effect with the 1983 WIBC Championship Tournament in Las Vegas, Nev. The revisions, which are the first major changes in tournament procedure since the Open Division was established in 1969, are:

Teams will be limited to not more than two members who are professional bowlers. In addition, doubles teams must have at least one member who is an amateur. The new ruling defines professional bowlers as "women who identify themselves as professionals or who are members or who apply for membership in any professional or semi-professional bowler organization on or after August 1 preceding the WIBC tournament."

As in the past, professional bowlers will be eligible to compete in the singles event and the all events.

The second change is in the alignment of Divisions I and II. Bowlers averaging 150 and under will now be included in Division II. In recent years, only bowlers averaging 145 and under competed in the second division. It is anticipated that this change, which also applies to teams (750 and under for Division II) and doubles (300 and under for Division II) will do much to equalize the number of entries in Divisions I and II.

The WIBC Championship Tournament returns to Las Vegas, Nev., in 1983, opening April 7. This will be the second time Las Vegas has hosted the WIBC Championship Tournament. The WIBC Annual Meeting will be held April 25-27, and the Queens tournament will be held May 10-14.

Entry forms on the 1983 tournament will be mailed the second week of June to all captains of teams entered in the St. Louis tournament, to individuals upon request and to local and state association secretaries. Entry closing date for Las Vegas will be January 7, 1983, unless the schedule is filled sooner.

The 1984 WIBC Championship Tournament will open April 5 in Niagara Falls, N.Y. The WIBC Annual Meeting dates are April 30 and May 1 and 2.

We suggest you keep these dates in mind when planning your local and state activities for 1983 and 1984.

Work has begun on production of a new film, our first in six years, with a possible target release for this fall. It is tentatively titled, "Just for the Fun of It." The film, to run under 20 minutes, will be a 16mm sound, color production and will be shot in St. Louis and Greendale, Wis. Watch for its release!

WIBC is now circulating our three newest film clips for television and cable network viewing — "Fun Begins at 55," "A Letter to Home" and "Many Happy Returns." These may also be ordered by local associations, leagues and proprietors through our film library.

Still in circulation are three other vignettes and "The Fun of Bowling," a combination of the three. All told, since beginning the program in 1976, our films have been seen by an estimated 53 million viewers.

Thirty-four WIBC members are eligible for 25-year plaques by bowling in the 1982 WIBC Championship Tournament here in St. Louis.

To date, 240 living members have bowled in 25 or more tournaments, not including a number of inactive participants who have not bowled within the last five years.

Myrtle Schulte of St. Louis is appearing in her 54th WIBC and Mary Covell of Chicago, Ill., is entered her 51st. They are the only two women to reach the 50-year plateau. Margaret Higley of Orange, Calif., is scheduled to bowl her 48th this year, tying her with the late Rose O'Brien of St. Paul, Minn.

Whether referring to tournament participation or bowling administration, WIBC has come a long way the past six decades. WIBC prospered and grew under the guidance of Alberta E. Crowe and our Board of Directors. The pace in recent months has given every indication that under the leadership of President Helen Baker and our current Board, WIBC will continue to meet the challenges of the future.

TO: The Board of Directors and delegates assembled at the 65th Annual Meeting of the Women's International Bowling Congress

As WIBC has grown and its services expanded, so has the structure for discipline of our members. In order to acquaint newer delegates with the work of this committee, we will briefly review the procedures under which associations and leagues operate when charges are filed or when there is an appeal of a decision.

We are all guided by Chapter IV in the WIBC Bylaws Book when a complaint is filed against a member for an infraction of WIBC rules, be it for misuse of funds or failing to furnish the association with final averages. By following procedures in that chapter, we are assured the member so charged has the right to be heard and to offer a defense. If any parties to the complaint feel the recommendation by the local association is unfair, they have the right to appeal. The legal committee reviews each of the cases, whether there is an appeal or not, and makes the final decision.

The committee also acts on cases under the bonding program. After appropriate investigation, when WIBC is advised that a member covered under the bonding program is guilty of acts within the meaning of rule 30a, rule 30b or both, WIBC initiates suspension action. The member so charged has the right to submit information to the committee in her defense or to request a hearing before her local association.

Other types of cases are also finalized by the committee. In the past year there have been appeals regarding association and league decisions, tournament protests and denials of high scores.

In 1977, the nonpayment of league fee cases began to be processed by sanctioned leagues under rule 114c, and the associations were relieved of holding hearings on these cases unless a member specifically requested one. Since many local associations have little information on these cases, other than whether the fees have been paid, applications for reinstatement of bowlers who have been suspended for nonpayment under rule 114c will be filed directly with WIBC beginning August 1, 1982. Local associations will not be required then to hold a board meeting to consider requests for reinstatement from those who were suspended for nonpayment of league fees. The local association will still handle requests for reinstatement on other suspensions, however.

In your workshops for next season, we have several topics that we wish you would stress.

While rule 114c can be used to remove an officer from her league office, this removal applies only to that one league. If the offense is one the league believes warrants her removal from all offices she holds, then a complaint must be filed with the local association and a hearing must be held in accordance with Chapter IV. Suspension of WIBC membership under rule 114c can be sought by the league only for a nonpayment of league fees violation.

When a league accepts a check from a member, it should be for that member's fees only. Leagues are not set up to provide a banking service, nor should they ever feel obligated to serve in that capacity. Each member of a team is responsible for her own fees. If one member writes a check for the entire amount of the team's fees, and takes out cash put in by other members, she is jeopardizing their status in the league as well as her own if the check is returned for insufficient funds.

According to rule 114d, when a member has cause to resign from a league, two weeks notice shall be given the captain and the league secretary. Many leagues still put in their rules: 'A member must give written notice when she resigns.' This often leads to problems. If the member states she is not returning, or if the league knows she has left the area, the league should be putting its efforts into finding a replacement rather than trying to get the written resignation while the amount due keeps growing.

All too often a league rule is adopted to govern arrearages, but the rule is not enforced. Members are permitted by team captains as well as officers to violate the rule, and little or no effort is made to enforce the rule. In summer workshops league officers should be reminded that fewer problems will result if the rules are enforced. Don't allow members to charge their fees, and collect full fees when they return after an absence. Ignoring a league rule or waiving one may seem to be the line of least resistance at the time, but lack of action can result in unhappy bowlers and league shortages — all due to high arrearages.

During the 1980-81 season, the following cases were processed by the committee:

317 Chapter IV
70 Bond claim
1054 Nonpayment of league fee
16 Assorted
122 Applications for reinstatement

In the period from August 1, 1981, to January 15, 1982, the committee has finalized 643 cases involving membership rights and 55 applications for reinstatement. Following is a summary of the action by the committee:

501 Membership suspended indefinitely, with office holding privileges withheld indefinitely in 32, never to hold office in 24.
69 Barred from holding office indefinitely.
50 Letter of reprimand/letter of counsel.
23 Not guilty/case dismissed/case closed.
39 Reinstatements approved with office holding privileges withheld in eight.
1 Privilege to hold team captaincy restored.
15 Applications denied.

In the above count, 57 cases were for misuse of funds, 58 were for failing to submit final averages, 81 fell into a miscellaneous category, and 447 cases were for nonpayment of league fees.

Twenty-two of the misuse cases came to us because a bond claim was filed. Sad to say, these claims totaled $34,274.75 and in many cases the league received only a portion of their loss. This came about because the funds were not banked properly and the officer who should have been verifying the bank account each month neglected this duty. The loss grew. The bonding company invoked the 50 percent penalty, and the league members suffered.

Whether it be misuse of funds or nonpayment of league fees, we urge the appropriate officer(s) to take corrective action quickly, for we have found that the smaller the amount a member has to pay, the more likely she is to make the debt good.

National Bowling Council

St. Louis, Mo.
April 20, 1982

TO: The Board of Directors and delegates assembled at the 65th Annual Meeting of the Women's International Bowling Congress

Officers of the National Bowling Council for 1981-82 are: president, Mrs. Alberta E. Crowe, WIBC past president; vice president, Ken Hurley, ABC executive secretary; and treasurer, Dick Richards, BPAA executive committee chairman.

Mrs. Helen Baker serves on the long range planning and education committees; Mrs. Agnes Duffy is chairman of BVL and a member of operations, advertising and marketing committees; Miss Flora Mitchell is serving on the education/training task force committee and collegiate tournament committee, with Randy Kilgore of our staff. Augie Karcher is on the public relations committee and Mrs. Crowe, as NBC president, is ex-officio on all committees.

The bowling awareness program has generated over $7 million in tie-in promotions from a total council expenditure of $233,683 for a return on investment of more than 29 to 1. In addition to 10 joint promotions, additional commercials include: Datsun, Communications Workers of America, Doan's Pills, Tiparillo print ads, Tab, Kesslers, Prudential Life Insurance, Sine-Aid, Wondra, Buick Skylark, Frito Lay Cheetos, and Bell Phone Center stores.

The program will be continued for the current year with the following objectives: promote awareness of key sales promotion and brand managers; develop promotional tie-ins for 1983 and beyond; encourage greater use of bowling in television commercials; increase exposure for the sport on television programs originating on the West Coast and in the movies.

As a result of the bowling awareness program and other contacts, we are currently in the position of having to choose programs and time schedules suitable to the bowling season and the required sign-up of bowling centers and/or approval of times. More and more firms are interested in tying in with bowling and their products. Promotions underway or complete include:

Budweiser: this program started with special television and radio commercials which ran one month commencing in late August. The 30-second spots promoted the benefits of league bowling and, in the process, provided a shot in the arm to league sign-ups for the new fall season. The ads were Phase I of a year long promotion to raise funds for the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum. February marked the beginning of a nationwide tournament promotion, coordinated by the National Bowling Council and Al Matzelle, executive director of the NBHF/M.

Colgate: bowling centers with over 70,000 lanes have signed up for this promotion scheduled for May, 1983. The product will be Colgate toothpaste and the advertising plans, while incomplete, may include television, radio and in-store advertising as well as toothpaste box advertising.

Quaker Oats: NBC is working out details with this firm for a major national advertising tie-in on several of its top cereals. Millions of boxes on the store shelves will carry a bowling message and plans are for free game promotions. This program would be run in 1983 also.

In the area of test and regional programs, activities under way — if all come about — could cover 49 markets coast to coast. The list includes top brand names: Pepsi, Kraft Foods, Dunkin' Donuts, Peter Paul's Powerhouse candy, True cigarettes, Hill's Brothers coffee, Stroh's beer, Maxwell House coffee, Vander Kamp's Bakery and Chrysler automobiles. Staff is working with Family Circle magazine on a special eight-page supplement devoted to bowling for August, 1982. NBC is providing demographic information and will assist with editorial content. This issue will reach approximately 7.2 million readers.

Sales for 1981 NBC Newspaper Supplement have surpassed the 1980 record, and orders are still being received. The supplement is six pages in length and has been designed for easy editing, should the stories be run separately.

The Travelling Ambassadors tour has been continued for this year and is run on a cooperative basis between the council and the local proprietor group. Another tour is planned before year's end.

On-the-Ball, a two-column series written by Chuck Pezzano and Jim Dressel, is distributed free each month to interested weekly newspapers. This series continues to increase circulation, as it now reaches 3.5 million readers.

The Tenpin Topics series will contain four different columns mailed together at the beginning of each month.

Each mailing will contain columns on bowling news, features, "tips," and a history or "fun-fact" piece. Writers for the series will be Fran Wolf, Dennis Bergendorf, John Archibald and Doug Bradford. This service will be furnished to daily newspapers, and will be available at a low cost of $20 monthly. Promotion of the series was scheduled to begin the first week in November.

"National Bowling Week" promotion had very good results in some areas and copies of proclamations have been received by NBC indicating good local acceptance. We recognize mail delays hindered the type of planning that would have given better coverage, but we feel it is an idea we can build on and improve.

Articles have appeared, or are planned, in various publications, including Dynamic Years, publication of the American Association of Retired Persons, on seniors and bowling. Monthly Detroit, a 12-page spread portrayed bowling in the same light as the earlier New York piece. Time of Your Life columnist, Jack Smith, featured bowling as the perfect sport for seniors. (This column syndicated to 100 papers.) Glamour is scheduled to feature bowling in its "Shape-up" section. Seventeen magazine included a piece on bowling in their "Mini-Mag" section. Shape magazine had a piece on bowling in the January, 1982, issue and other contacts indicate future articles will appear in various publications.

"That's Incredible" featured Andy Varipapa's trick bowling shots on the nationally popular television show. The taping was coordinated through NBC. Future television programming being prepared includes "Prime of Your Life." WNBC-TV producer, Carol Waxman, is interested in a senior leagues piece and a corresponding feature story. Helen McMahon will be the focus of the show.

"Hey, Let's Go Bowling," the new advertising campaign for television, radio and newspapers, is being used in many markets and hopefully many of you have already seen it. Three target areas are addressed in the 1981-82 materials: After 8:30 p.m. bowling, ladies daytime bowling and weekend open play.

Television and radio commercials for the Budweiser/Natural Light Hall of Fame Tournament promoted league bowling during the season. The tournament was won by John Kiser of Twin Falls, Idaho and WIBC Hall of Fame member Shirley Garms, shown in the inset hugging Kiser.

Television, radio and newspaper materials have been created, with the exact mix of available materials dependent on the particular target audience.

Television commercials for 1981 center around three vignettes. In the women's spot, housewives are seen doing everyday activities such as finishing the laundry, having coffee and grocery shopping. In each case the question is asked, "what do we do next?" Then, by video magic, a bowling ball drops into the hands of one of the participants to the thunder of a strike. The solution: "Hey, Let's Go Bowling."

In the open play television spots, people are seen in similar decision-making situations, a family at dinner, two senior citizens ready to play another game of cards and two teenagers approaching a long line at the movies. In each case an alternative is sought, and the dropping ball and pinstrike sound vividly suggest bowling.

The education/training program will encompass a wide range of seminars for proprietors and their employees as well as association representatives. The purpose of the program is "to further the growth and prosperity of bowling through the design, development and implementation of education and training programs for all integers of the sport." This is a large undertaking with a high priority for NBC.

The first proprietor/employee module has been developed and seminars held. This first module is segmented into an overview of the business, an overview of management, understanding lineage marketing, the study of lineage and how to organize a lineage promotion thru marketing management.

Other planned topics for proprietor/employee seminars include finance, operations and personnel. Funding for this program is included in the regular NBC budget for 1982. The program is planned to be self-supporting after initial costs.

The National Collegiate Championships, now in their eighth year, will be held at Fair Lanes Sky Bowl, Orlando, Fla., April 29, 30 and May 1 for team honors. Sponsored by NBC, it marks the first time the competition is being held in the Southeast. A full report is given in the collegiate committee report.

Certified Instructor Program (CIP) clinics continue to be held in all sections of the country. They are well attended by in-center personnel learning to use Learn-to-Bowl plus materials to teach and convert bowling center patrons into league bowlers. NBC's Education Service Clinic (ESC) program is specifically designed for college and high school coaches, sports instructors, and graduate assistants teaching physical education.

The clinic is a two-day program offering both classroom and on-lane instruction. It provides those attending with the necessary materials and ideas to return to their classes and help teach and improve their students' skills. A limited number of ESC clinics are run each year and NBC is selective in choosing sites to get as much exposure country-wide as possible. Several improvements have been made in both programs by the committee this year.

Your continued support and promotion of bowling at the local and state level, together with the combined efforts of all integers of bowling on the National Bowling Council, will keep bowling healthy in the 80s. Advertising and promotion as well as education and research can keep people interested in entering the bowling centers and becoming league bowlers. The challenges of the game and the fun of bowling with friends and family will keep them as customers and members of WIBC and ABC.

TO: The Board of Directors and delegates assembled at the 65th Annual Meeting of the Women's International Bowling Congress

America's bowlers have once again joined together to raise a record BVL Fund contribution of $812,409.34. This is an increase of over $48,000 from the 1979-80 total. This report covers contributions received in the 1980-81 bowling year and puts us well on the way to the $1 million mark in total contributions.

Phoenix, Ariz., was No. 1 with $20,600. Syracuse, N.Y., just missed the top spot with their contribution of $20,081.77. In fact, the same associations as last year ended up in the first seven positions. The chart shows position on total contributions, membership (WIBC) and average raised per member.

Special mention should be made of Porterville, Calif., with a membership of 696 and a contribution of $4,533.20 (28th place overall) they averaged $6.51 per member.

Total contributions on a state level ended with California holding first place with a new record of $171,282.86 followed by: New York, $64,672.54; Texas, $51,835.39; Tennessee, $34,705.33; Georgia, $33,933; Indiana, $33,722.25; Arizona, $31,505.88; Ohio, $31,505.88; Michigan, $27,264.81; and Oregon, $22,524.86. But on amount per member, the top ten states would read as shown on the chart.

When the amount per member is larger than the state's membership dues, it is very evident the BVL program is receiving excellent support and membership participation. All contributions are appreciated but special mention must be made of this extra effort by our bowling associations.

Bowlers continue to honor or memorialize friends with special contributions to the BVL Fund. Over 100 donations were received in this special category. Special acknowledgement cards are sent to the family of the deceased or honored individual and to the person or group making the contribution.

Contributions continue from the 500 clubs, National 600 Bowling Clubs, Pioneer 20-Year Club, state and local club groups as well as other integers of bowling. AMF and Brunswick contribute the use of their technical personnel to check bowling facilities in the veteran medical centers and recommend needed repairs or replacements. ABC also has its local association officers or field representatives check bowling equipment to give assistance on maintenance and repairs. It takes a combined effort of the bowling family to do a complete job for this program.

With more funds, it was possible to increase the number of television sets distributed to 741 (from a high last year of 442). This one item provides hours and hours of pleasure for confined veterans. Many hospitals also request other recreational items, and we are able to supply the items this year.

Some of the requests were: musical instruments, ping pong table, air hockey game, bingo board, scoreboard for football/baseball, funds for skiing program, many requests for funds for bowling programs and other sports and recreation equipment.

Jim Worth, the championship wheelchair bowler and National Bowling Council traveling ambassador, made a VA tour in conjunction with his media tour duties and included the following VA hospitals: Washington, D.C.; Perry Point, Md.; Lyons, N.J.; Lakeside, Ill.; N. Chicago, Ill.; Westside, Ill.; and Wood, Wis.

Several VA's, especially Perry Point, arranged for Jim to appear on a local radio and television show in conjunction with the tour. Hospitals were contacted again for continuing appearances by top bowling celebrities this spring.

This is what Perry Point VA Medical Center wrote after Jim's visit: "We are always pleased to have a bowling clinic at this medical center by top flight bowlers referred through the BVL Fund.

"This was the first appearance by Jim Worth, national wheelchair champ, and I do hope he will be rescheduled. He did an excellent job of communications, demonstrations and instructions.

"A large group of wheelchair patients were able to enjoy his presentation. They bowled with Jim's instructions and guidance.

"It is a pleasure to express our appreciation for the continuous support and interest the BVL Fund has shown in this form of recreation for the hospitalized veteran."

For the 32nd consecutive year, the BVL Fund donated $25,000 to the Blinded Veterans Association at their annual convention. The donation will be used to continue their three major programs: field service, which sends BVA employees all across the U.S. to counsel and motivate blinded veterans; outreach employment, which attempts to join unemployed blinded veterans and prospective employers together; and information, which sends out useful information to over 16,000 veterans across the U.S.

Support of the BVA by the bowlers of America began in 1946 when WIBC gave a substantial gift to BVA. In 1949, the Bowlers Victory Legion, forerunner of the BVL Fund, of which WIBC was a part, began making annual contributions to the BVA.

BVL's Honorary Chairman, Nelson (Bo) Burton, Jr., has been busy visiting hospitals and doing public relations work for the program. We hope that many associations ordered the posters and other aids from the BVL office in Washington. These are provided at no cost to assist with your local fund drives.

How can we say thanks to such a wonderful group of workers all across the country — large state associations; small local associations. Every dollar is appreciated and needed. The money will be put to the best possible use. Your efforts and gifts are truly appreciated. They do so much good. Our nation's hospitalized veterans do know that the bowlers care. Bowling can continue to be proud of our BVL Fund. Thanks again, again and again!

Hall of Fame and Museum

St. Louis, Mo.
April 20, 1982

TO: The Board of Directors and delegates assembled at the 65th Annual Meeting of the Women's International Bowling Congress

The annual meeting of the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum was held in St. Louis, Mo., on July 13, 1981.

Board members present were: from WIBC, Helen Baker, Gladys Banker, Alberta E. Crowe, Agnes Duffy, Rae Fisk and Flora Mitchell; from ABC, H. Wesley Bogle, Maurice Hayes, Roger Tessman, Lowell Rothschild, and Edward Sweeney; from BPAA, Leo Grawey, Nicholas Mormando, Lester Unnerstall and Tom Ogden; from Brunswick Corporation, Milton Rudo.

W. W. Woodruff of AMF and Joe Antenora of PBA were unable to be present.

Elected to serve as officers for the corporation for the forthcoming year were: president, Milton Rudo; vice president, Nicholas Mormando; secretary, Roger Tessman; and treasurer, Flora Mitchell.

In October, 1981, the board of directors of the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum were deeply saddened by the death of board member and WIBC vice president, Rae Fisk. Mrs. Fisk was very interested in the Hall of Fame project and devoted great efforts to raising funds through the cooperation of her hometown area, Houston, Texas.

Mrs. Helen Baker, WIBC president, appointed Mitzi Herold of Aiken, S.C., to the NBHF/M Board of Directors filling the vacancy created by Rae's death.

As of the date of this report (January 30, 1982) we are most excited that the ground breaking date is definitely in view and hope that by the time we all meet in St. Louis for our annual meeting, the construction of the Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum building will be in full swing. We know this is welcome news to so many of you who have given such strong support to this important project since it was first announced.

Concurrent with the construction of the building itself, design teams assigned to specific theme areas to be incorporated in the museum sections of the building are at work creating and coordinating the displays, dioramas, etc., for their areas.

The majority of you saw the sound-slide presentation by Chris Schenkle shown here last year in which Chris gave us a preview look at the various segments of the Hall of Fame and Museum. It was an exciting experience to see what had been planned, but it is even more exciting now that the building and its interior design are in the process of being built.

For the contributions of so many who were willing to support what was only a dream, our warmest thanks. And now, as we get into construction, our efforts to obtain corporate support dollars from major purveyors to the bowling industry will be intensified. But in long range planning, ongoing support dollars to keep the Hall of Fame and Museum a viable, living testimonial to our game will have to come from the vast array of bowlers themselves.

To illustrate the point, this year in cooperation with Anheuser-Busch Breweries, the Budweiser/Natural Light Hall of Fame Tournament was put on track. By paying a $1 entry fee and using their league scores, bowlers had the chance to qualify for in-house prizes, plus the chance to advance to a roll-off to decide the woman and man champion in each of five designated regions.

These 10 champions will soon be coming to St. Louis where they will pair off with WIBC and ABC Hall of Famers in a special mixed doubles tournament. First prize in this championship tournament is $10,000, with $1,000 for last place.

Plans are underway to continue this event next season and you, the delegates in attendance at this 1982 annual meeting, will have the honor and privilege of making the selection of the five WIBC Hall of Famers who will participate in the 1983 event.

A ballot containing the names of all WIBC Hall of Famers, who were inducted into the hall for their bowling performance, and who are still performers on the lanes, will be provided. We ask that you vote for the five players of your choice. Your vote will determine the five WIBC Hall of Famers who will be invited to represent the WIBC Hall of Fame in the 1983 finals of the Budweiser/Natural Light Hall of Fame Tournament.

Many bowling leaders are being honored with "Living Tributes." Leading in that category is Mrs. Alberta E. Crowe. Over $58,000 has been received at the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum office paying honor to Alberta. Our thanks (Alberta's too) to the many associations and individuals who chose to honor her in this way upon her retirement from the office of WIBC president. Thanks, also, to all those who have sent contributions to the NBHF/M in memory of Rae Fisk.

Now, more than ever, we need local and state associations to consider additional support. We urge you to consider upgrading your original pledges. Consider the next step in the leadership program. As individuals, perhaps at this time you are prepared to become a financial supporter in the leadership gift program, which is payable over a three-year period.

Each donor in any of the categories — Founder, $1,000; Builder, $300; Patron, $150 — will have their name inscribed permanently in the museum. They will receive a lifetime admission pass, the interesting newsletters, mailings, and notices. All gifts are tax deductible. Send your pledge and first payment to: National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum, 5301 South 76th Street, Greendale, Wis. 53129.

Thank you for your continued support!

International Competition

St. Louis, Mo.
April 20, 1982

TO: The Board of Directors and delegates assembled at the 65th Annual Meeting of the Women's International Bowling Congress

It has been a busy year for international competition since the last report to you in Baltimore. This report will cover the highlights of the various events and future plans. Detailed stories were carried in The Woman Bowler magazine, news releases and other media.

The 1981 United States Team Trials started the action. They were conducted by WIBC and the American Bowling Congress in Milwaukee, Wis., in June to determine the U.S. representatives for international play. Some of the nation's finest nonprofessional bowlers, 24 women and 24 men, battled for berths on the team. Only six women and six men gained spots for the 8th Federation Internationale des Quilleurs American Zone Tournament and one woman and one man were selected for World Games I.

After an exciting and grueling three days and 34 games of competition, Cora Fiebig of Detroit, Mich., headed the list, averaging 218 in the 18-game qualifying round and 205 for the entire 34 games.

Annese Kelly, Brooklyn, N.Y.; Jean Havlish, St. Paul, Minn.; Donna Dillon, Dallas, Texas; Mary Mohacsi, Detroit, Mich., and collegiate representative Barbara Walker, San Jose, Calif., completed the team. Carol Miller, Milwaukee, Wis., was again selected as the coach for the women's team.

Mary Lou Vining of St. Paul, Minn., gained the seventh spot and so qualified to represent the U.S. in World Games I.

The American Zone event was held at Empress Lanes in Winnipeg, Man., Canada, July 25 through August 1, 1981, the first time Canada had hosted an FIQ event.

Miss Walker and Bob Puttick of Canada won the individual gold medals in a field of 72 women and 69 men representing 12 nations. The U.S. and Canadian women dominated the women's events in this tournament.

Singles: Mary Mohacsi, U.S., gold; Simone Hindmarsh, Canada, silver; Cora Fiebig, U.S., bronze. Mrs. Mohacsi's 1265 set a new zone record.

Two-Player Team: Barbara Walker, Annese Kelly, U.S., gold.

Three-Player Team: Lorna Pollock, Simone Hindmarsh, Joanne Walker, Canada, gold; Cora Fiebig, Donna Dillon, Jean Havlish, U.S., tied for bronze.

Five-Player Team: Cora Fiebig, Barbara Walker, Mary Mohacsi, Annese Kelly, Jean Havlish, U.S., gold; Joanne Walker, Cathy Townsend, Lorna Pollock, Simone Hindmarsh, Wendy Zielonka, Canada, bronze.

The U.S. men bowled well in the tournament also, winning all three medals in singles; a gold in five-player team and silver in individual championships.

The American Zone presidium elected Ken Hurley, ABC executive secretary, president for the next four years and awarded the 1985 tournament to Colombia with Mexico as the alternate. The 1983 FIQ World Tournament had already been awarded to Venezuela, which will also be hosting the Pan American Games where it is hoped bowling will be an exhibition sport.

Mrs. Helen Baker, president-elect, and Mrs. Alberta Crowe, president of WIBC, represented the United States at the meetings. The Canadian Tenpin Federation hosted a dinner for Mrs. Crowe at which she received many lovely gifts. The Canadians did a super job of running the tournament and hosting the participants.

World Games I opened in Santa Clara, Calif., July 24, with ceremonies that included a marching band, entrance march (Olympic Games style) of the athletes and officials of all 16 sports, and more. The official opening ceremonies for bowling were held July 28 at Brunswick's Homestead Lanes in Cupertino.

Eero Routamo of Vassa, Finland, president of the tenpin division of FIQ, carrying the FIQ flag, led the parade of bowlers from 25 countries onto the lanes. Mrs. Agnes Duffy, WIBC vice president, followed with the World Games I flag. Yrjo Sarahete, Helsinki, Finland, general secretary of FIQ was master of ceremonies. Also present for the occasion were FIQ President Frank Baker, Soetopo Janato of Jakarta, president of the FIQ Asian Zone; Roger Tessman, ABC assistant secretary; Bernie Rudo, president of Brunswick Recreation Centers; plus officials of World Games I and other FIQ representatives.

Competition took place in three events: women's singles; men's singles; and mixed doubles. Mary Lou Vining won the bronze medal in singles but lost a chance at the gold in a very close match with winner Liliane Gregori of France. The silver medal went to Porntip Singha of Thailand.

Arne Storm of Norway, survived a roll-off in the video taped finals for the gold in men's singles. Ernst Berndt of Austria settled for the silver and Chris Batson of Australia won the bronze. The U.S. mixed doubles team missed the match-game finals by only a few pins. Australia's Ruth Guerster and Chris Batson won the gold in mixed doubles. Finland's Airi Leppala and Mikko Kaartinen captured the silver and Hilde Reitermaier and Ernst Berndt from Austria won the bronze.

As the host nation it was a delightful experience for the U.S. Organizing Committee of Agnes Duffy, WIBC vice president; Elaine Hagin, WIBC director; and Irma Boyd, WIBC field representative working with George Kampfen, ABC past president; Glenn Weaver, director; and Robert Wiley, field representative. The local men's and women's associations and other volunteers provided more than ample assistance to run the tournament smoothly.

Thanks to ABC, WIBC, local publications and Peter Hagin, bowling received good media coverage. Bowling was the only sport that had its own press room. It was interesting to observe the many media people that accompanied bowlers from some of the other countries. Video tape operators even sent footage back for their local television stations. Brunswick Homestead Lanes staff provided excellent conditions at no cost for the entire week and AMF and Brunswick hosted the final banquet.

World Games II is scheduled for London, England, in 1983 and Toronto, Canada, has indicated an interest in 1985. So it appears we will have FIQ competition in World Games every two years.

The Lee Evans Memorial Bowling Tournament of the Americas was held for the 19th time at Cloverleaf Lanes in Miami, Fla., August 3-8, 1981. Twenty-four countries were represented and many contestants had just finished competing in the FIQ American Zone event in Canada or the World Games in Santa Clara, Calif. WIBC member Joanne Walker of Canada won the 33-game all events, with Mary Lou Vining of the U.S., taking the silver medal. Frances Sanderson, also of Canada, won the silver medal in singles and teamed with Joanne for the silver medal in doubles.

The bronze medal in doubles was won by Mrs. Vining and Betty Hurd of Florida. Mary Lou teamed with Jim Kontos to bring home the silver medal in mixed doubles and the silver medal in mixed foursomes was won by the U.S. team of Mary Lou, Jim Kontos, Rob Vital and Betty. Canada added to their total of gold medals with victories by Howard Sculnick and Herman Prakken. Canadian WIBC members accounted for two golds and two silvers and the U.S. women earned three silvers and one bronze.

The final tally showed the star WIBC member was Canada's Joanne Walker with two golds and a silver medal. Mrs. Vining finished with four medals, three silvers and a bronze. Add her bronze from World Games I and it made five international awards in two weeks. Frances Sanderson of Canada also left her mark in Miami with one gold and two silver medals.

The United States junior bowlers outdid the adults in gold medals in this tournament with Jeanne Arnette winning girl's all events, while Diego Gonzalez captured boy's singles.

Plans are being made to have the 20th Annual Lee Evans Memorial Bowling Tournament of the Americas be a festive affair and a tribute to Lee Evans. Previous all events and singles winners from past Lee Evans Bowling Tournaments of the Americas will be invited to bowl Sunday, August 1 and Monday, August 2 in singles competition. The tournament will run August 1-7, 1982.

The FIQ World Congress and Tenpin Division Conference were hosted by ABC and WIBC in Milwaukee, Wis., August 2-7. The sign atop Milwaukee's city hall read: "Welcome, World F. I. Q. Bowling Meeting." Bowling officials representing the major bowling countries met for the 16th World Congress, the second held in the United States. The first took place when the 7th FIQ World Tournament was held in Milwaukee in 1971.

Several representatives spent time in our WIBC office gathering information to assist them in upgrading bowling for women in their countries. They left with all available materials and assurance that more was available when requested.

Frank Baker, FIQ president, presided over the festivities. The WIBC and ABC international competition committees thoroughly enjoyed their role as hosts. The WIBC and ABC staff also worked in the registration office and at other duties to insure that all the visitors enjoyed their stay. We had the opportunity to sit in as guests at part of the Tenpin Division Conference and the FIQ World Congress, along with some of our department managers. Mr. Ken Hurley was the U.S. delegate and since we had a proxy from Puerto Rico,

The six-player United States women's team (center) won three gold medals and a bronze in the Federation Internationale des Quillaurs American Zone event in Winnipeg, Man., Canada.

Helen Baker voted that proxy.

As the next to last order of business at the FIQ World Congress, Mrs. Crowe was presented with a gold pin of merit and a certificate for her contributions to international competition. Only six gold pins have been presented by FIQ and none had ever gone to a woman. Silver pins of merit were also presented and outgoing FIQ American Zone President Joan Esary of Canada received one.

Delegates acted on a number of pieces of legislation with the major action a rule on slow bowling in FIQ tournaments. Any contestant failing to conform to outlined rules will be issued a white card on the first offense, a yellow card on the second offense and a red card for the third and each subsequent offense during any event. No penalty is connected with either the white or yellow card but the issuance of a red card will result in the bowler receiving zero pins for the frame in which the infraction is cited.

The 1981 AMF World Cup was held for the first time in the U.S., at Madison Square Garden in New York, N.Y. A field of 43 men and 34 women competed in the 17th renewal of this tournament. Michele Citro of Penn State and Bob Worrall of Northern Arizona University represented the United States. Neither of last year's champions competed this year, as Jean Gordon of Canada and Paeng Nepomuceno of the Philippines failed to qualify. Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Crowe were members of the honorary committee.

Bob Worrall of the U.S. won the men's event, defeating Manny Magno of the Philippines 221-179. He was the first entrant to win when the event was held in his own country and the first U.S. winner since Lucy Giovinco took the women's crown in 1976. He is the fourth U.S. bowler overall to win. Michele Citro made the cut to the quarterfinals (top 16) but fell to 14th during those 16 games. The women's winner was Pauline Smith of Great Britain who defeated Miyuki Motoi of Japan 203-195.

For the first time in international competition, the countries sending entries to FIQ tournaments entered more women than men. In both the World Games I and FIQ American Zone tournaments the number of women exceeded the men and we hope this means that bowling for women is increasing worldwide.

As the result of their performances in international competition and the events they won to qualify for the world tournaments, Barbara Walker of San Jose, Calif., and Bob Worrall of Prescott, Ariz., were selected as 1981 Amateur Bowlers of the Year.

AJBC

St. Louis, Mo.
April 20, 1982

TO: The Board of Directors and delegates assembled at the 65th Annual Meeting of the Women's International Bowling Congress

Today we present to you our final report of the American Junior Bowling Congress. AJBC concludes its part in the great history of tenpin bowling on July 31, 1982. However, the youngsters are not forgotten. On August 1, 1982, the doors open wide with a new all inclusive program for our youth of today. From the very wee ones, bantams, on through the college level, the new banner will proudly wave: Young American Bowling Alliance!

To make a successful organization, first there must be a firm foundation. This requires strong, sound leadership with many willing, dedicated workers. AJBC had all this and because of the multitudes involved I would like to make this report a two-fold dedication:

To Milton Raymer, founder and organizer in the year 1936, and Charles F. Hall, the leader, the guiding force, the man with new idea after new idea for successful programs and the know-how to get them moving which resulted in an all-time AJBC record in 1977-78 of 853,650. To the thousands of AJBC league coaches, instructors and administrative leaders across the nation who, in most cases, worked on a volunteer basis with no remuneration.

Let us step back to the year 1936 when AJBC was born. That year, a high school teacher from Chicago, Ill., Milton Raymer, organized 16 students to bowl together, making four teams with four members each and a coach for each team. Cost of bowling three games was 25 cents. This was a fun group and the word spread rapidly. Mr. Raymer was asked by proprietors in the Chicago area if he would organize leagues in schools near them. This he did and by 1939, the year-end banquet had outgrown the Raymer dining room facility. Growth from 16 to 3,500 was unbelievable. Eventually, membership surged to 8,000.

On November 15, 1940, Don Berlinger of Chicago recorded the first 300 game in junior league competition. This honor was his alone for 13 years.

Bowling leagues began to develop in other cities across the country and operation of the bowling program for these high school students was done out of the home of Milt Raymer with the assistance of his wife, Dorothy. About this time, World War II began, and Milt was called to serve. Junior bowling operations were suspended.

Following the war and upon Milt's return to civilian life, he was back to the game of tenpins for the young. In 1947, the National Bowling Council was organized and undertook sponsorship of the program long with its many other promotional ventures. It was also at this time that the name of American Junior Bowling Congress became synonymous with "the bowling program for the kids." The year 1947 concluded with a membership of 8,727. By 1958-59 it had reached 217,292.

Charles Hall joined the AJBC field staff along with other field men in the 1959-60 season. This first year with men in the field brought a tremendous membership increase, the largest in a single season ever, 122,988, for an enrollment of 330,280. In 1962, Hall became the head of AJBC and growth continued until 1963-64, when the second youth bowling program was organized under Bowling Proprietors Association of America sponsorship. At that point, AJBC membership dropped 139,353. However, it recovered the following year and began to climb upward.

At the 1964 WIBC convention in Minneapolis, Minn., delegates voted approval to a resolution to accept the offer of the National Bowling Council to turn over to the adult membership organizations the full financial and administrative responsibility of AJBC. NBC agreed it would be on a debt free basis. ABC delegates approved a like resolution.

The AJBC program took on a new look. The new AJBC image was created in 1965 with newly designed literature, new awards, emblems and a new film, "Fun on the Lanes." More than 20 different pieces of the new, attractive literature dealing with the program and a four color brochure and poster dramatizing the program were produced and distributed to the current and newly formed local and state junior bowling associations.

WIBC and ABC shared the expense and $150,000 was borne equally to subsidize AJBC that first year, when a dollar went further than it does today. By virtue of a contract between WIBC and ABC to share necessary AJBC subsidy costs, a total of $1,380,000 has been paid to date.

AJBC growth and success were the result of tremendous dedication by the multitude of interested adult leaders who gave their talents and time to serve as league coaches, instructors and leaders in local and state junior bowling associations. Many of these folks are here in this delegation today. You are the ones who took the national AJBC program, added many ideas and programs of your own, and created the "Fun-Fun" bowling game for the kids in your area.

Junior bowlers joined in efforts to raise funds for the new bowling shrine to be built in St. Louis. They bowled in the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum Bowl-a-thon, the Million Dollar Club and the I Beat Earl Anthony/Betty Morris contest. With pride they earned over $700,000, which has been donated to the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum.

At the national level AJBC was served by a board of directors consisting of eight ladies appointed by the WIBC president, eight men appointed by the ABC president, and eight (four men and four women) area representative directors selected from the ranks of those directly and actively engaged in conducting the AJBC program.

To enumerate all the specific and varied programs that have been successful for AJBC would make this report far too lengthy, but let me conclude by expressing on behalf of the entire AJBC Board of Directors our sincere thanks and appreciation for all your efforts on behalf of junior bowlers. I wish I could present a diamond award to each of you!

The million mark in the dream figure for AJBC membership never came true, but I leave with each of you a challenge to make it a reality in YABA!

The following estimated figures broken down in the newly designated divisions tells us a fairly accurate story on the estimated 900,000 membership:

Div.	Girls	Boys
Bantams	35,802	69,498
Preps	91,800	178,200
Juniors	103,136	218,164
Majors	52,826	140,674
Seniors	2,703	7,197
	286,267	613,733

Mothers, where are your daughters? As you can see we need more promotion and efforts expended to interest girls in this wonderful sport. Will you do your part?

Acknowledgement and great appreciation is extended to Kathy Nell, Jean Yeager and other AJBC staff members for all their extra work over and above the normal AJBC workload. It has taken countless hours on the part of many to put together all the necessary phases in order that a smooth transition can take place at the end of the year, July 31, 1982. Hail to the new program Young American Bowling Alliance.

It has been a pleasure for this committee to serve in the interest of our junior bowlers and we thank Mrs. Helen Baker, WIBC president, for the appointment.

Collegiate

St. Louis, Mo.
April 20, 1982

TO: The Board of Directors and delegates assembled at the 65th Annual Meeting of the Women's International Bowling Congress

The WIBC/ABC collegiate division is in a healthy state. Membership during 1980-81 showed a 4.1 percent increase and leagues were up 6 percent. Based on the amount of league supplies ordered, it would appear that the current season should hold its own and be able to show an increase.

The potential for collegiate bowling growth is tremendous when it is revealed that 150 schools sanctioned last season and there are 3,046 colleges and universities in the nation. Currently, 212 schools have ABC certified lanes and of these, 99 had sanctioned collegiate leagues last season. It is estimated that 50,000 bowlers from youth programs across the nation enroll in college each year.

Working with the AJBC staff, the collegiate division has developed a program to endeavor to keep these new collegians active in bowling. In March, a form will be submitted to all junior coaches asking them to return to bowling headquarters a list of all graduating seniors and the college they plan to attend. This information will be used to alert campus representatives to potential league bowlers for the coming year. It will also be a means for making contacts to initiate new programs.

A sincere thank you to local association presidents and secretaries for their comprehensive response to the "We Need Your Help" mailing. Many new names as well as schools were added to the collegiate records and now they are being contacted. As we all know, changes are constant.

A new feature for 1981-82 will be the selection of an All-American team to be announced in late March. This date was selected to prevent the temptation to give weight to only those bowlers who make it to sectionals or nationals. This will give athletes on strong and weak teams an equal chance for selection to the All-American team.

Nominations will be made by school coaches and the nominee must carry one of the top five averages in a WIBC/ABC collegiate division sanctioned conference. Nominations will be screened by the WIBC and ABC public relations departments to narrow the field to 20 men and 20 women.

Final selection will be made by a specially appointed committee composed of five collegiate men's coaches, five collegiate women's coaches, 10 members of the BWAA writers' poll committee, all members of the WIBC/ABC collegiate committees, two representatives from the National Bowling Council and one representative from ACU-I. This committee will select five men and five women to be named 1982 Collegiate Bowling All-Americans.

The highlight of the collegiate bowling season is the national championship. In 1981, the championship tournament was held in St. Louis. It was an exciting event with both the women's and men's champions coming for the first time from the same school, Arizona State University. They were an excited group.

Selected by a vote of the coaches in each division on ability, team leadership, sportsmanship and enthusiasm, the women's all tournament team members were: Patty Bowie, Arizona State; Jeri Edwards, Penn State; April Long, Penn State; Barbara Walker, San Jose State (Calif.); Donna Wiziecki, Morehead State (Ky.)

Patty Bowie was voted the Most Valuable Player Award. Also because of her highest pinfall, she earned a place in the 1981 United States Team Trials for the FIQ American Zone Tournament.

At the trials, Barbara Walker, top scorer at the 1980 National Collegiate Championships, earned a spot on the U.S. team. It was quite an experience for her to travel to Winnipeg, Man., Canada. She brought home gold medals as part of the five-player team, two-player team, singles and women's individual all events. Congratulations!

The National Collegiate Championships are open to all five-woman and five-man teams on both the college and junior college level. This year, sectional roll-offs will be held March 26-27, 1982, at San Francisco, Calif.; Phoenix, Ariz.; Portland, Ore.; Minneapolis, Minn.; Kansas City, Mo.; Atlanta, Ga.; Greensboro, N.C.; Springfield, Mass.; Fort Worth, Texas; Champaign, Ill.; Saginaw, Mich.; and Baltimore, Md.

Twenty-four teams (12 women's and 12 men's) will be selected to make the all-expense paid trip to the finals in Orlando, Fla., April 29-30 and May 1, 1982. We hope that members and friends in the area will be on hand to watch some of the competition. We are sure you will be rewarded for your time and support.

Thank you one and all for your tremendous support during the past five years of the WIBC/ABC collegiate program. As it becomes part of the Young American Bowling Alliance on August 1, 1982, it will continue to be a strong viable program for all young people who participate in the game of American tenpins. Randy Kilgore, manager of the WIBC/ABC collegiate division, is in attendance here in St. Louis. If you have questions regarding collegiate bowling, introduce yourself. You will find him most knowledgeable and helpful.

TO: The Board of Directors and delegates assembled at the 65th Annual Meeting of the Women's International Bowling Congress

A challenge? You betcha! And a most rewarding one. Just ask any state association who hosted their first senior championship tournament this past year.

It has been heartwarming to hear the favorable remarks made by many seniors who participated for the first time in a state senior tournament. There were comments such as: "I really had fun." "I saw friends I bowled with long ago." "My friend will definitely admit to being eligible next year when she hears how much fun she missed." "We'll help spread the word to make it bigger and better next year." "Thank you for making this possible."

We also heard comments from those who had not quite reached that magic age saying, "It is the only time I can ever remember that I wish I was older." The happy faces and enthusiasm of the seniors made it all very worthwhile, and what's more, some of the scores rolled would put us all to shame.

In less than a month, the first WIBC National Senior Championships will be held in Baltimore, Md. Seventeen states will be represented with forty-eight bowlers competing in match play for championships in four age divisions. They will be representing their states and whether they win or lose, they can be proud to have been a state winner which entitled them to be eligible to participate in the national event. We are pleased with the response from many state leaders who hosted their first senior tournament in order to have representation in the national tournament.

For those state and provincial associations unable to host a senior tournament this past year, we hope you'll join us next year and help give the 1983 tournament 100 percent participation. If you need help in getting your senior tournament started, please contact staff at headquarters, and they will be more than happy to forward suggested information to you "to get the ball rolling."

The senior committee is continuing to study the senior program and if you have any suggestions on how we can improve it, please let us know. It was through your requests for a better senior program that: A senior study committee was appointed; a survey of senior leagues was made to determine the feasibility of having a national senior tournament, as well as the type wanted; a change was made in some of the awards; a league rule was changed; a new senior film was developed.

It is through your interest and work that senior leagues have grown and through your caring that many of our seniors are no longer lonely, are in better health through exercise and feel tomorrow holds a brighter outlook. They have healthy attitudes, and have found good fellowship and mental activity. Yes, bowling does keep seniors young and there is no place in their life for senility.

At the close of 1980-81, WIBC's senior program reflected a membership increase over the previous season (see chart).

Last season, 1980-81, was the first season for the seniors 75 Pins Over Average Award for a game and the 125 Pins Over Average Award for a series. In addition, the new awards are available to all seniors in senior competition, where the previous awards for games of 225 and 250 and over were available only to seniors 65 years of age or older. As was anticipated, we issued many more awards under the revised format. See the chart for a comparison.

Each of you deserves a pat on the back for the job you are doing

TO: The Board of Directors and delegates assembled at the 65th Annual Meeting of the Women's International Bowling Congress

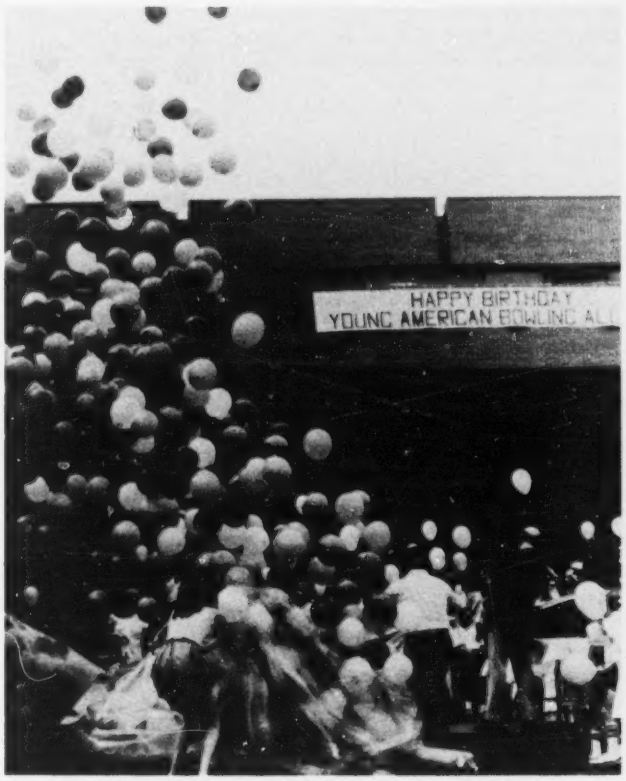
At the 62nd WIBC Annual Meeting in Tucson, Ariz., in 1979, the delegation adopted a landmark resolution committing WIBC to the premise that there should be one national group to sanction young bowlers, and that WIBC should undertake programs to reach that objective.

Throughout the following year, members of the WIBC/ABC/BPAA unification committee developed the broad general guidelines required to achieve the goal of a unified youth program. An independent agency was retained to conduct a contest among young people to select a name for a youth bowling organization. The name Young American Bowling Alliance was the choice and scholarships were awarded as prizes.

In Seattle, Wash., during the 1980 WIBC Annual Meeting, the delegation once again reviewed the resolution calling for one national group to sanction and provide services to the country's young bowlers. The resolution was adopted with the group to become effective with the 1982-83 season. Following the adoption of the same resolution at the BPAA and ABC conventions, the Young American Bowling Alliance became a fact . . . the dream of one youth organization was a reality.

August 1, 1982, is neither the beginning, nor the end. While we have a new name, new awards and some exciting new plans for the future, the game is the same and so are the players.

Organized bowling for the young people of this country



Thousands of balloons were released on August 1 at Bowling Headquarters to celebrate the birth of the Young American Bowling Alliance.

didn't just happen, and it didn't happen overnight. Countless men and women have worked with and for "our kids" at the league, local, state and national level. They have received few awards and little recognition. We can never repay that debt to these coaches and adult leaders, but we can say thank you, individually and collectively. Thank you.

The personal satisfaction and pleasure of being with young people motivates those who devote themselves to providing a "let's come back and do this every week" experience for them. The YABA will provide these dedicated leaders with new tools to further enhance their already successful program.

August 1, 1982, seemed a long way away. It wasn't. With Chuck Hall, American Junior Bowling Congress manager, as project director, YABA began to take shape. A committee was formed utilizing the experience of those directly involved in the day-to-day implementation of both AJBC and Youth Bowling Association programs. This group has spent countless hours finalizing the YABA rule book, selecting the new emblem designs and reviewing the procedures to govern many aspects of the new organization.

The unification committee took the broad general mandates of the resolution and refined them, adding the procedures necessary to create a national membership organization. The Articles of Incorporation were filed with the State of Wisconsin July 16, 1981.

Initial appointees to the YABA Board of Directors were: from WIBC, Helen Baker, Fla.; Rae Fisk, Texas; Gladys Banker, W. Va.; Joyce Deitch, Nev.; Elaine Hagin, Calif. From ABC, Ken Hurley, Wis.; Dayle Vannoy, Texas; Robert Ash, Mo.; William DeHaven, Ohio; Ted Melonis, Neb. From BPAA, Wayne Bolin, Okla.; Danny Gutierrez, Colo.; Bill Geiger, Mich.; Don Hillman, Calif.; Don Lowry, Ind.

The organizational meeting of the YABA Board of Directors was held at bowling headquarters August 19, 1981, and the following officers and executive committee were elected: president, Ken Hurley; vice president, Don Lowry; secretary-treasurer, Rae Fisk; executive committee, Dayle Vannoy, Don Lowry and Helen Baker.

Bylaws were officially adopted and standing committees gave reports. The YABA membership fee was set at $1.50, plus an association fee not to exceed $1.50, unless the association receives special permission from the YABA executive committee for increased dues. William H. Hall, Sr. of Illinois, replaced Robert Ash as an ABC appointed director.

The second meeting of the YABA Board of Directors was likewise held at Bowling Headquarters December 3, 1981. It opened with a moment of silent tribute to the late Mrs. Fisk who had served as a member of the unification committee before her appointment to the board, and her election as its first secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Hagin was elected to fill the vacancy in the office of secretary-treasurer and Anne Simone of Massachusetts was named as a WIBC appointed director.

The board agreed to begin work on a program for the mentally and physically handicapped, and an advisory committee of individuals knowledgeable in this field will be named.

Chuck Hall was named executive director of the YABA to assume duties August 1, 1982. In the meantime, Chuck will continue as AJBC manager as well as YABA project director.

While the YABA board and its committees have been going forward with plans for the future, the AJBC staff has been assigned the task of implementing a smooth transition. Their efforts along these lines are certainly making it easier for the rest of us and are greatly appreciated. The cooperation from association leaders and coaches has also been a great help in paving the way.

Every effort has been made to keep those involved with junior bowling informed during this year of transition. By the time you receive this report, YABA rule books and program books will be in the hands of those who will be operating YABA programs. Also, an information sheet was distributed on the awards program.

Since many WIBC delegates are not directly involved with youth bowling, the following brief summary is given to bring you up to date on the various aspects of the YABA.

There will be few changes in the collegiate division apart from its transfer from a joint WIBC/ABC division to a YABA division, and a greatly expanded awards program. Randy Kilgore will continue as direct supervisor of the division, working with the campus representatives.

At this annual meeting, legislation is being presented to extend WIBC membership and average recognition to collegians as is currently being done.

The entire YABA rule book will be applicable to the collegiate division with the exception of Chapter III (Youth Division-Membership and Suspension Rules) which will be replaced in their rule book with the collegiate division supplement.

Plans are underway to create closer ties at the local level with the youth division, as well as the adult associations. Collegiate average lists will be supplied to all three local groups. Information will be furnished to the national office regarding graduating seniors who plan to attend college, and this information will be utilized in the formation and promotion of organized college bowling programs. Local associations will be encouraged to invite campus representatives to their meetings.

Mandatory constitutions and suggested bylaws have been distributed and each state organization has the privilege of adopting, rescinding or amending its bylaws according to its particular needs, providing the action does not conflict with the mandatory constitution. The state will be concerned primarily with conducting the state YABA championship tournament, along with the planning and implementing of other statewide activities and promotions.

Every agency processing YABA memberships will be a chartered YABA association, including state BPA offices which have conducted the YBA program. These associations will operate under the mandatory constitution and their own bylaws. As in the case of the state organization, the mandatory constitution is much the same as the current AJBC constitution.

The concept of youth leader participation and the junior leaders program is retained in both the state and association constitutions and suggested bylaws.

Leagues which began their schedules after March 15, 1982, will be processed by the agency which processed them for the 1981-82 season. Members joining for the first time in such leagues will be issued 1981-82 AJBC or YBA cards When they join a 1982-83 winter league, they will exchange the summer membership card for a 1982-83 YABA membership card without the payment of any further dues.

Beginning with the 1982-83 winter season, all applications for YABA sanctioning will be made to the agency which processed that league prior to August 1, 1982, whether this was a local AJBC association or a state BPA office.

YABA field representatives will be serving the youth bowlers and working with the adult leaders as in the past. The certified coach-instructor schools will be continued, as well as the in-state instructors program.

All instructors trained and certified by AJBC and YBA will be recognized by YABA. They will forward their original certificate to the national office. YABA will issue a YABA certified coach-instructor certificate and return their AJBC or YBA certificate. When making the exchange, the instructor may remit $1.00 to obtain the new and attractive YABA certified coach-instructor emblem.

The 1982 National Junior Bowling Championships format was developed by a committee of representatives from ABC, AJBC, BPAA, WIBC and YBA. It is sponsored by Coca Cola and is being conducted this year by ABC, BPAA and WIBC. It was designed to make it possible for all youth bowlers to participate and based on the number of participation certificates that have been requested, it looks as though it is going to be a huge success.

This is the first time that a youth tournament of this magnitude has been undertaken, and it has been a learning process for us all. Within each state, representatives of all the membership organizations and the proprietors have worked together as a steering committee to plan and conduct the tournament.

It is the goal of YABA to conduct annually, a national championship tournament for its members. The reality of a tournament for all members, truly national in concept, will be achieved in time, as we learn and grow.

You are aware of the decline in national membership and, unfortunately, youth bowling has taken the sharpest decline. The projected membership figure in the original resolution was one million. When the YABA board approved the first budget last December, the facts had to be faced, and we are projecting the 1982-83 membership at slightly over 900,000.

A recent National Bowling Council survey shows that eight million juniors 10 to 18 years of age went bowling last year. Interest was expressed in our game by eight million youngsters. With the best organized youth sports program available in this country today, is there any reason why YABA shouldn't grow and grow and grow?

Yes, there are two reasons — lack of motivation and a shortage of adult leaders. The YABA program will supply the tools and the training for both motivation and promotion. Only you can supply the adult leaders. We know you are busy with the activities of your WIBC commitment, but we also believe you can find time to recruit others.

Bowling is fun. Kids are fun. The two combined can open the door to an exciting new adventure. We have reached out and joined hands to become a family, and the instinctive purpose of a family is the care and nurture of the young.

Like any family, we have had, and will continue to have, our differences. But we have established one irrefutable fact in this year of transition. When we sit down together and discuss our problems, they can be solved, because we have a common goal — the care and nurture of the young.

WHEREAS, a number of solutions to increase the pace of bowling have been suggested, but none have been tested in actual sanctioned play, and keeping in mind that there is no desire to set an unrealistic time frame that would defeat the social and recreational aspect of our sport, and

WHEREAS, the present rules providing there shall be no unreasonable delay have not solved the problem.

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved by the delegates in convention in St. Louis on April 20, 1982, that a committee of WIBC, working in conjunction with ABC, proprietors and equipment manufacturers, be authorized to test various procedures to improve the pace of bowling in sanctioned leagues during the 1982-83 season and to permit modification or variances in existing WIBC rules for leagues participating in the test program.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
July 31, 1982 and 1981

1. Summary of significant accounting policies

The significant accounting policies followed in the preparation of the financial statements are summarized below.

Basis of presentation — Women's International Bowling Congress, Inc., (WIBC) is a nonprofit organization, organized in 1916 and incorporated in 1919 under the statutes of the State of Illinois. It engages in the promotion and supervision of the game of American tenpins for women. The accounts of WIBC are maintained on the accrual basis.

Income taxes — WIBC is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code in accordance with an exemption letter dated March 28, 1972.

Materials and supplies inventory — Materials and supplies inventory is valued at the lower of cost, on the first-in, first-out basis, or market.

Depreciation — All fixed assets are depreciated over their useful lives using the straight-line method:

	Years
Furniture and fixtures	10
Office equipment	10
Vehicles	4

Designated funds — Annually, WIBC allocates a portion of the Company's fund balance for various designated purposes. During 1982 and 1981, $737,635 and $701,766, respectively, was added to the designated fund balances shown on the accompanying balance sheet.

Subscription revenue — Membership dues in the amount of $1.50 for each league sanctioned by WIBC are allocated to subscription revenue of "The Woman Bowler" magazine.

Retirement plan — WIBC has a qualified noncontributory retirement plan which covers all eligible full-time employees. The total pension expense for 1982 and 1981, was $122,153 and $116,009, respectively, which includes amortization of past service costs. The Company makes annual contributions to the plan equal to the amount accrued for pension expense. WIBC elected the lump-sum method of funding the initial past service liability of $219,634 when the plan was amended in 1975 and is amortizing the amount over ten years.

A comparison of accumulated plan benefits and plan net assets is presented below.

	August 1, 1981	June 1, 1980
Actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits:
Vested:
Retired participants	$ 749,987	$ 413,799
Active and terminated participants	222,025	397,767
Total vested	972,012	811,566
Nonvested	102,208	94,243
	$1,074,220	$ 905,809
Net assets available for benefits	$1,253,849	$1,022,505

The weighted average assumed rate of return used in determining the actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits was 6.5 percent.

2. Accounting change — vacation pay

The financial statements at July 31, 1981, have been restated to reflect the retroactive application of Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 43, "Accounting for Compensated Absences." Accrued vacation pay previously recorded on a paid basis is now accounted for as earned. The effect of the restatement was to increase accrued liabilities at July 31, 1981, by $52,500; decrease 1981 revenue over expenses as previously reported by $5,200; and decrease the fund balance as of July 31, 1980, by $47,300.

3. Notes receivable

During 1982, WIBC agreed to loan Young American Bowling Alliance (YABA) up to $125,000 on an interest free basis, contingent upon matching funds being made available from American Bowling Congress (ABC) and Bowling Proprietors Association of America (BPAA). As of July 31, 1982, WIBC has advanced YABA $105,000, with payment due as follows:

Amount	Due date
$ 5,000	December 31, 1982
100,000	August 1, 1983
$105,000

4. Investment in Bowlers' Building Corporation

Bowlers' Building Corporation (BBC) is a nonprofit corporation which owns, operates, and maintains the building presently being leased on a year-to-year basis to WIBC and ABC. Revenue and expenses therefrom are shared equally by the lessees. The investment as of July 31, 1982 and 1981, represents WIBC's 50 percent equity in BBC's net assets. WIBC's share of BBC's operating expenses is included in general and administrative expenses in the accompanying statement of revenue and expenses.

Summarized financial position and results of operations of BBC from the report of other independent auditors are as follows:

BBC's condensed financial position	July 31, 1982	1981
Net property, buildings, and equipment	$3,978,115	$4,077,760
Other assets	50,119	27,574
Total assets	$4,028,234	$4,105,334
Real estate taxes payable	$ 162,400	$ 144,500
Other liabilities	36,995	8,515
WIBC and ABC's equity	3,828,839	3,952,319
Total liabilities and equity	$4,028,234	$4,105,334
Revenue from WIBC and ABC	$ 543,601	$ 435,434
Operating expenses	667,081	603,236
Excess of expenses over revenue	$ 123,480	$ 167,802

The following is a statement of changes in WIBC's investment in BBC during the years ended July 31, 1982 and 1981:

WIBC's investment in BBC	1982	1981
WIBC's investment at beginning of year	$1,976,160	$2,060,061
Additional cash investment during the year — 50 percent	271,801	217,717
	2,247,961	2,277,778
Operating expenses — 50 percent	333,541	301,618
WIBC's investment at end of year	$1,914,420	$1,976,160

5. Commitments and contingent liabilities

WIBC has authorized a contribution of $250,000 to National Bowling Council for fiscal 1983, the same amount paid for the years ended July 31, 1982 and 1981, respectively. The 1983 payment is contingent upon the authorization of like contributions from ABC, BPAA, AMF, Inc., and Brunswick Corp.

During 1982, WIBC and ABC agreed to jointly guarantee loans by American Junior Bowling Congress, Inc. (AJBC) to YABA up to a maximum of $250,000. The interest free loans are to be repaid on or prior to August 1, 1983. However, upon written request by YABA, the repayment date shall be extended to August 1, 1985. As of July 31, 1982, AJBC had loaned YABA $128,854.

During 1982, Bowling Redevelopment Corporation, a fully owned subsidiary of National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum, Inc., entered into a construction loan agreement with Centerre Bank of St. Louis, making available a $2.5 million line of credit. WIBC and ABC have agreed to guarantee any borrowings under this line. The credit line had not been drawn upon as of July 31, 1982.

The Board of Directors
Women's International Bowling
Congress, Inc.

We have examined the accompanying balance sheet of Women's International Bowling Congress, Inc. (WIBC), at July 31, 1982 and 1981, and the related statements of revenue and expenses, changes in fund balances, and changes in financial position for the years then ended. Our examinations were made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. The financial statements of Bowlers' Building Corporation (BBC), an unconsolidated subsidiary in which WIBC has a 50 percent interest, have been examined by other independent auditors; insofar as our opinion on the financial statements relates to data included for BBC, it is based solely on their report. In the financial statements, WIBC's investment in BBC represents 21 percent and 27 percent of total assets at July 31, 1982 and 1981, respectively.

In our opinion, based upon our examinations and the report of the other independent auditors, the statements mentioned above present fairly the financial position of Women's International Bowling Congress, Inc., at July 31, 1982 and 1981, and the results of operations and changes in financial position for the years then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a consistent basis during the period, after restatement of the financial statements for 1981 to give retroactive effect to the change, with which we concur, in the method of accounting for vacation pay as described in Note 2 to the financial statements.
